

Get unlimited marketing and reviews forever!

Terms and conditions:

- 1) The lifetime packages keep your book offered on our lists forever, which means nonstop exposure and orders to review. All you have to do is deliver an e-copy to the interested reviewers we connect you with, and we guarantee the reviews.
- 2) Forever means as long as the author is able to deliver an e-copy of his/her books to interested reviewers, and for the duration the company remains in operation. We are in business since 2015, everything is good, no plans to get out of the market.
- 3) In the highly unlikely event that Booktasters ceases operations, you will be eligible for a partial refund according to our refund policy.
- 4) If you are no longer willing or able to provide e-copies of your books, or Booktasters stops offering the lifetime packages, the service will be considered delivered and concluded upon your reception of a minimum of 500 reviews. In case you are the one requesting the refund, the delivered value will be counted based on the per review price of the smaller packages.
- 5) You can read what some of our lifetime authors say about the service here:
